

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED; Northern Bruce Peninsula property owners are under attack.

All property owners will be affected in some way. We know that a minimum of 1487 properties are substantially affected, others, less so, but all may experience a devaluation of their property or suffer a direct cost, once the adoption of the proposed official plan is imposed.

Many individual property owners along with the Northern Bruce Peninsula (NBP) Advocates group have prepared and submitted notices of objection to the proposed changes.

The NBP Advocates group has and continues to invest countless hours of research, contact with municipalities, township, councilors and landowner associations to assist individual property owners with their notice of objection.

We have made progress; however more work needs to be undertaken to assist council in developing a workable plan. We have determined professional expertise is required to achieve our mutual goal. The NBP Advocates group has solicited the review of public advocate Leith Coghlin and his company EnPointe Development Inc., of London Ontario.

EnPointe Development provides meticulous and powerful advocacy on behalf of individuals and private businesses that seek remedies on issues of public policy, regulations, and proposals. Issues that we are experiencing in the Northern Bruce. Mr. Coghlin has 20 years of extensive political experience as an advisor to several senior politicians in Ontario. He is an accomplished orator and debater.

Mr. Coghlin comes with a cost and to that end we are reaching out to each concerned property owner to help defray the expense.

A contribution of $100.00 (or what you are comfortable contributing) may help towards saving the capital in your major investment: your home, cottage, business, farm or vacant lot. Hiring Mr. Coghlin is the direction we feel is best in moving forward, but given the current political climate neither he nor we can guarantee results.
